SMUGGLER GETS THIRTY DAYS

Martin Keough Escapes Heavy Penalty Through Pleading Guilty.

Martin Keough was yesterday afternoon sentenced to a month's imprisonment for smuggling, by Judge Dole in U. S. District Court. He pleaded guilty when arraignments were made of those who were indicted by the grand jury. This morning there will be numerous sentences passed by the Federal Judge.

Moses Lono and Sam Luhiau were together indicted on a charge of altering a money order. C. W. Ashford represented Luhiau and the latter pleaded not guilty. Lono was unrepresented and made a plea of guilty, although at first he would not plead. Following is a list of other indictments with the pleas where pleas were made yesterday:

Martin Keough, smuggling; guilty.
Joshua D. Koki, embezzlement money order funds.
Jacob Rosenberg, receiving stolen goods; not guilty.

Ong Too Wan, possession of counterfeit coin; not guilty.
John Kaka, adultery.
Su Cho Sun, making and having in possession counterfeit coins; guilty.

Kim Key Wog, having in possession counterfeit coin; not guilty.
Ah Pa, illicit distilling; guilty.
Hishimio, illicit distilling.

Koge, illicit distilling.
Ah Wan, illicit distilling.
Ah Sai, illicit distilling; guilty.

Daisy Wagner and Albert Truegood, adultery; woman pleaded not guilty.
Lloyd Smith and Rachel Weigand, adultery.

M. J. Colto, carrying on business of retail liquor dealer without paying tax.
Fuji Kujima and Fujitake Kujima, illicit distilling; nolle prosequi.
John Paris, illicit distilling.

Seki, adultery; not guilty.
Toichi Hayashi, perjury.
Kong Yung Soon, making and having in possession counterfeit dies; guilty.

HELD IN CONTEMPT.
Deputy Attorney General Whitney was on Tuesday afternoon adjudged guilty of contempt of court and was given until yesterday morning to pay $870 to C. Bolte. He did not pay, taking an appeal to the Supreme Court.

Whitney was once administrator of the insolvent estate of C. Ahl, amounting to $1400, declaring in 1903 a forty percent dividend for the benefit of the creditors among whom was Bolte. Whitney offering him $42 as his share of the dividend, which was refused by Bolte who demanded $570, the other creditors all accepting their allowances.

In the year following, Judge Gear ordered Whitney to pay, but another order of court had meanwhile been issued which exhausted all the money, a plural wife of Ahl's showing that certain money was hers. There was no money to pay out and Whitney did not comply with the order and when the estate was closed it owed him about $500 in commissions which he was not able to collect. The Circuit Court follows the late Judge Gear's order and Whitney is in contempt and must suffer unless upheld by the Supreme Court.

HAVE UNTIL SATURDAY.
Judge De Bolt yesterday granted motion for dismissal of suit in the matter of the petition of defendants in W. J. Lowrie vs. H. P. Baldwin et al., with the proviso that in the event of the necessary bond to cover the costs would be vacated. In the same case in Supreme Court, plaintiffs' attorneys' motion that they be allowed three days extension of time after the order of Judge De Bolt had been complied with, in which to file briefs, was granted.

TESTING THE LEPER LAW.
No decision was arrived at yesterday in the two cases of habeas corpus brought by Attorney C. W. Ashford for the release from Kalahe detention camp of the two Hawaiian women suspects, Anamalia Maunakea and Mary Kaunakalia. The women were yesterday morning before Judge Lindsay, in answer to the writs and President Pinkham of the Board of Health, also present, was represented by Attorney General Hemenway, Dr. and Mrs. Atcherley being in evidence as friends of the women under detention as leper suspects.

An answer which proved to be a general denial to the statements set forth in Ashford's contention, was filed by the Attorney General and Ashford asked that the court put the matter over until next Tuesday morning that he might be afforded an opportunity to file a traverse of the answer in each case, the motion being granted.

Mrs. Atcherley, after the postponement of the case, remarked that if her husband, Doctor Atcherley, was allowed to continue treatment of the women the patients would in a comparatively short time be able to be around.

GRAND JURY ON IWILEI.
Iwilei was discussed by the Territorial grand jury in session in the legislative hall in the Executive building yesterday, report having it that most of the members are inclined to concede the existence of such a section as a necessary evil, or an evil which can not be removed although, as elsewhere, it may be regulated and controlled. Some believed that existing conditions were altogether too public and expressed a conviction that greater control should be had through additional regulations. The Federal grand jury, recently discharged, had also conducted an investigation into Iwilei affairs, but made no report. Several minor assault cases were considered by the Territorial grand jury.

COURT NOTES.
C. F. Peterson vs. Kalia Ah'ena, assumption, was yesterday morning dismissed by Judge De Bolt.

J. Rosenberg, charged with receiving stolen goods, yesterday pleaded not guilty before Judge Lindsay. He made a similar plea in Federal court.

Chang Kim was yesterday appointed temporary administrator of the estate of C. Winam.

Agnes G. McAuliffe was yesterday granted a divorce by Judge Lindsay from James McAuliffe. She was given permission to resume her maiden name, Cook. It was alleged that the wife suffered great cruelty at the hands of her husband.

K. Ono was yesterday appointed temporary administrator of the estate of the late Naotaro Nishikida, Judge Lindsay making the appointment.

P. E. R. Strauch and M. P. Correia were yesterday appointed by Judge Lindsay as joint administrators of the estate of the late Joao Correia Quintal. A $1000 bond being required.

Victoria Amoe Mahuka, by her attorneys, J. W. Cathcart and F. W. Milverton, has instituted proceedings for divorce against W. M. Mahuka on allegations of extreme cruelty and in-temperance, asking for $25 per week alimony pendente lite.

Judge Lindsay has signed an order in behalf of George Namanu, who is under charge of larceny in the second degree, permitting him to issue subpoenas for several witnesses, without cost, who reside out of town and who are essential to his trial.

On motion before Judge De Bolt yesterday morning R. M. Isenberg was appointed executor of the estate of H. A. Isenberg from which position he had resigned, believing the estate settled, whereas it may not be settled for several years.

THE Y.W.C.A. WANTS A LARGER LIBRARY

The Young Women's Christian Association of Honolulu extends greeting to its friends and to the people of Honolulu in general, whom it hopes soon to number among its friends.

We want books and yet more books. The few books in our library have been read and read by our members, and we are making a united effort at this time to increase and improve our library; we are doing our best, and we ask your kind assistance.

Come to our Book Shower at Engle's side, the evening of March 17, and bring a good book with you. If you think one book will be lonely, bring two! The more the merrier. Poetry, travel, history, fiction, biography, general literature—any good book!

If you prefer to give the price of a book, that will be just as acceptable. If you can, not come, suppose you send a book in your stead, but we hope you and the book will come together.

Don't forget the time and place—Engle's, March 17, and remember, "He gives twice who gives promptly."

BIBLE READING MOVEMENT, READING FOR MARCH 12

ACTS 17.
16 Now while Paul waited for them at Athens, his spirit was provoked within him as he beheld the city full of idols. 17 So he reasoned in the synagogue with the Jews and the devout persons, and in the marketplace every day with them that met him. 18 And certain also of the Epicurean and Stoic philosophers encountered him. And some said, What would this babbler say? others, He seemeth to be a setter forth of strange gods: because he preached Jesus and the resurrection. 19 And they took hold of him, and brought him unto the Areopagus, saying, May we know what this new teaching is, which is spoken by thee? 20 For thou bringest certain strange things to our ears: we would know therefore what these things mean. 21 (Now all the Athenians and the strangers sojourning there spent their time in nothing else, but either to tell or to hear some new thing.) 22 And Paul stood in the midst of the Areopagus, and said,

Ye men of Athens, in all things I perceive that ye are very religious. 23 For as I passed along, and observed the objects of your worship, I found also an altar with this inscription, To the Unknown God. What therefore ye worship in ignorance, this I set forth unto you. 24 The God that made the world and all things therein, he being Lord of heaven and earth, dwelleth not in temples made with hands; 25 neither is he served by men's hands, as though he needed anything, seeing he himself giveth to all life, and breath, and all things; 26 and he made of one every nation of men to dwell on all the face of the earth, having determined their appointed seasons, and the bounds of their habitation; 27 that they should seek God, if haply they might feel after him and find him, though he is not far from each one of us; 28 for in him we live, and move, and have our being; as certain even of your own poets have said,

For we are also his offspring. 29 Being then the offspring of God, we ought not to think that the Godhead is like unto gold, or silver, or stone, graven by art and device of man. 30 The times of ignorance therefore God overlooked; but now he commandeth men that they should all everywhere repent: 31 inasmuch as he hath appointed a day in which he will judge the world in righteousness by the man whom he hath ordained; whereof he hath given assurance unto all men, in that he hath raised him from the dead.

22 Now when they heard of the resurrection of the dead, some mocked; but others said, We will hear thee concerning this yet again. 23 Thus Paul went out from among them. 24 But certain men clave unto him, and believed: among whom also was Dionysius the Areopagite, and a woman named Damaris, and others with them.
